 Okay, here it is. I've become disgusted with everything. I've tried to kill myself several times, but couldn't. Give me the death sentence. It's our level of difficulty. Yes, It's chapter three. "A Risen Lord."

SOUND'S BACK

MARC HENERSON
 Mamoru Takuma's her interaction with the game.

LI-LI
 Osaka Japan's elementary school massacre. A serial child killer?

MARC HENERSON
 Considering the complexity and level of this environment-

LI-LI
 I'd lean toward mass murder.

MARC HENERSON
 Kill theories. Their media's uploaded into a pirated cyberspace black-hole in conjunction with the nano-tech gameplay at Tanegashima.

EXT. HONG KONG CHINA - NIGHT

Yu struts. Hungry ghost rituals are about, incense and paper burn. Yu flags a Red Taxi. Yu's in quickly.

INT. RED TAXI - NIGHT

TAXI DRIVER's creepy. Yu's CELL-PHONE. Yu answers it.

YU
 Oni infestation killed everyone. It opened the gates of Hades.

ABI (O.S.)

The software's working off your voice frequencies.

YU

No Abi. I'm something else. I'm not what happened.

ABI (O.S.)

When you and the Gates of Hell were at a peak crescendo, I uploaded the code into the cyberspace blackhole. Then, I took my bike to the cybercafe. Our tickets and passports were delivered.

Yu

I'm not a puppet for an alien satellite that kills people.

ABI (O.S.)

The cyberspace blackhole's the puppeteer. Not you.

LARGE BLACK CAT peeps over seat - HISSES at Yu. Taxi Driver's sinisterly entertained. Cat persists.

What was it offering?

LI-LI Quantum software applications for satellite launchers and intercontinental ballistic missiles, guidance systems-

MARC HENERSON
I entered the online portal to implement the simulation technology for Tanegashima for all that?
Ambitious.

LI-LI
I'm the gamer. You're the coder.

MARC HENERSON
Ah ha. Absolutes. Two in. One out.
Conflict's decided.

LI-LI
Yep. A one on one fighting game.

MARC HENERSON
All for one and one for all? That makes her the game's one on one strategy. She'd be the instrument for their final killing blows.

LI-LI
Their space-holder. That's all.

MARC HENERSON
Okay, so we game her in that virtual black-hole reality. Adding Tanegashima's multi-player progressive fights. She'll be in-game. There. With us and in those killer game-modes.

LI-LI
Tanegashima moves objects, destroys them. Voila, pirates add an alien for its demonic possessions. So, am I suffering from its techno delusions? Is there gameplay simuli going on between my ears? I don't know. An alien cyberspace feedback pipeline with what, my blackouts?

ABI
She makes the reconstructions in the alien cyberspace. She's the original cause for their online particle programing. She's the nano-tech codes that are for their simulation games.

MAI
Okay. Okay. Everything stops with her, right? Then, we're indefinitely wired. She's whatever then. Like afterwards we win?

Bathroom door cracks open - radiance emits. Abi's stands.

TWO SUMO WRESTLERS are at it. Shot opens and Li-Li and Marc are watching THEM on a SMART-PHONE, on its VIDEO PLAYER while they are at their table. It's techno night.

MARC HENERSON
Rules are simple. Knock an opponent down or out of the ring.

LI-LI
Tanegashima's sensors measure these physical qualities for our application in this gameplay environment. Okay. But this game is many against one.

MARC HENERSON

That one's an infinite cyberspace portal. Online and in real-time.

LI-LI

Digitally annihilated into a game.

MARC HENERSON

Her voice vibrations and our behavior patterns are networked with the existing online space center's computers.

LI-LI

You've played us into the virtual misinformation.

MARC HENERSON

Multidimensional codes are coming from Tokyo's software architecture.

MARC HENERSON

She's been accessed as the enemy boss's higher being. Those cyberspace planes. Chapter levels. Gaming existences with the ebook.

LI-LI

Linking our psyches in a virtual nano-tech gameplay?

MARC HENERSON

Extraterrestrial data management.

LI-LI

Which is the darker side of human nature.

MARC HENERSON

She's just waves of sound interconnected with an online holographic grid. A virtual gameplay simulation at Tanegashima.

Music stops. ALARM, fire-lights flash. Patrons vanish.

CHI CHI

It was feeding time. The dragon was hungry.

Marc's trousers find his legs.

LI-LI

She thinks it was oral sex.

MARC HENERSON

Not real. Female sumo's- Not real.

LI-LI

Arigato. Arigato.

Marc comes and takes their phones and video cams.

Dale's face becomes hideous. Tom gets close to Dale.

DALE (CONT'D)
 I am the Lord your God.

Dale's eyes shift, knocking Tom's gun out his hands.

TOM
 Is this going to be player against

RAIDOM
What's the problem? God's demons

 We're the modified varieties of Yu Wing Chun.

YU
 No! I'll free mankind. I'll overturn your God's online order!

Demonic techno possession lessons.

RAIDOM
 We're renunciations. Robot masters

Dr. Hacker. Have we launched on enemy target?

Shot opens up, and Larry's placing a Manga comic book on a scanner. Speaking into a vertical microphone:

LARRY

Injecting Manga comics for our promiscuous mingling. It shouldn't de-familiarize our computational intensive simulation.

RYAN (O.S.)

Simulator's been mixed with virtual reality and the media art?

LARRY'S POV - JERRY BEHIND TRANSPARENT PARTITION

Jerry's in a high-tech medical chair, white armless t-shirt, panties, connected to electrodes - sensors glow.

YUUDIA

Upload download ratio has accessed a file sharing.

RYAN

YUUDIA

Hardware failure. Traffic congestion patterns of mass media.

TOM

I'm calling this operation tested and proven. This state-the-art digital technology misinformation that's combined with our futuristic cyberspace nano-tech is a weapon that kills.

YUUDIA

Extraterrestrial infrastructure in Tokyo is online as an anomaly that has its own downtime in Osaka.

RYAN

Osaka as ever evolving parade of our nano-tech in a gameplay?

TOM

Alright. Where's it hiding?

YUUDIA

In an ebook vacuum that's siphoning our data into an upload. Then, its downloading itself into a feedback pipeline of its alien cyberspace. Real-world issues caused us a criminal gameplay administrator.

RYAN

Organizational adaptability.

YUUDIA

The digital content has reworked our surveillance technology too.

TOM

Putting us into on our outer edges of its self-perceived game design.

RYAN

Yes. Pre-installed for our offense.

TOM

Killing computer created demons?

RYAN

Was that an enigmatic digression?

TOM

There's none with cold weapons and close quarter hand to hand combat.

RYAN

War whoring? So, you're not going to under-utilize any of your mindless killing acts?

TOM

Prostitution of my brain could be construed as a combative sport.

Where would your glory and power be if there was no justly stated rules of our simulation engagement?

TOM

Justly kill this bitch.
